

Helping Those Who Help Others!
Changing how Americans spend, save and live –
One person; one dollar; one day and one dream at a time...

Thursday, November 29, 2007

Time: 8 AM to 1 PM Location: PHCC Frith Building

A light breakfast and lunch will be provided—Cost: $5.00 to defray refreshment costs

Sponsored by: The HOPE Initiative-United Way's Financial Stability Partnership

Open to all employees of city & county government, non-profits, church employees, HR managers & similar organizations.

Please join the HOPE Initiative for this very timely and important workshop as we present: Reeta Wolfsohn, CMSW, the founder of the Financial Social Work discipline. This revolutionary approach to financial education looks at the reasons behind how and why we sabotage and jeopardize our financial security. This interactive and innovative workshop presents an exciting and motivational approach which explores money and financial education from a psychosocial perspective. Reeta has appeared on the "TODAY" show and was recently awarded the Outstanding Achievement for Women in Business.

A mini workbook will be provided for all attendees to facilitate their integrating this work into their own lives and sharing it with their clients. For more information on Financial Social Work visit: www.financialsocialwork.com

Seating is limited: RSVP by November 23, 2007
276-638-3946 or email: HOPEInitiative@comcast.net

About the trainer:

Reeta Wolfsohn, CMSW, founder of the Financial Social Work discipline and the Center for Financial Social Work (www.financialsocialwork.com) is a therapist, author and nationally known motivational speaker on the topic of money from a psycho-social perspective. The Center offers Financial Social Work Certifications for social workers and non-social workers, along with other psychosocially based programs and products specifically designed to help those living in poverty, or with debt, to increase their emotional stability by improving their financial circumstances.

CENTER FOR FINANCIAL SOCIAL WORK

financialsocialwork.com

